Confidence – strut your stuff

How confident do you feel having a difficult conversation, starting a new project, in an interview, receiving criticism, voicing your own opinion, or starting a conversation with someone you don't know?

Confidence is a big word. What do you mean by Confidence? What do you think others mean by Confidence? A sign of confidence is the ability to take risks. Do you have imposter syndrome? What limiting beliefs do you have; What are your underlying fears What are the potential obstacles. Do these stop you from gaining the rewards,

Confidence is synonymous with achievement and success and as such, if you feel you are not confident it can give rise to feelings of inadequacy and weakness, particularly in challenging contexts.

This course helps you understand confidence, develop you confidence and build confidence strategies as the groundwork for you to see your confidence levels soar, enabling you to flourish and achieve your goals! And covers

- ✓ Confidence – what is it? – Meetings, Self-observation
- ✓ The components of confidence – self-worth and self-belief – their part in confidence
- ✓ Discovering your confident strengths
- ✓ How do you do confidence? Tips and Tools, body language
- ✓ The Imposter Syndrome and negative beliefs: your personal confidence risk assessment, some stretching confidence exercises
- ✓ Developing Confidence Strategies
